

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Established 1860. 57th Year.—No. 19

Stanford, Lincoln County, Kentucky, Tuesday, March 7, 1916

Tuesdays and Fridays

CIRCUIT COURT COMES TO CLOSE

Many Minor Cases Disposed of Before Adjournment—Grand Jury Returns 31 Indictments.

The February term of the Lincoln circuit court came to an end Saturday, the trial of a few cases for minor offenses occupying the court during the closing days. The grand jury brought in a total of 31 indictments during the term, a great many of them for selling whisky illegally.

Two new lawyers were sworn in to practice at the local bar during the term just ended, Attorney Kelly J. Francis, who recently moved here with his family from Middlesboro, and Attorney W. H. W. Reynolds, of the southern end of the county, who recently passed the bar examination at Somerset.

In addition to the reappointment of E. D. Pennington as Master Commissioner, Judge Hardin reappointed Walter W. Saunders, of the First National Bank, as Trustee of the Jury Fund. Judge Hardin also appointed Miss Emma Hays, as examiner of the court, to take depositions, etc.

The court granted a divorce to Walton Yates from his wife, Lizzie Yates.

In the big insurance case of J. B. Robinson, etc., against the Equitable Life Assurance Society, the defendant filed notice and moved the court to submit the case finally and for a judgment upon the pleadings and proof. The plaintiffs objected, however, and the court overruled the motion to submit the case. On motion of the plaintiff, the time for the Commissioner to make a report was extended until the first day of the May term of court.

In the case of C. B. Nevius and Margaret Nevius against Allie Logan and H. H. Logan, judgment was given in favor of Nevius for $700 subject to two credits of $100 each.

Tom Lee was fined $60 and costs on a whisky selling charge. Earl McAninch not appearing when the case against him was called, his bond of $50 was declared forfeited and his bondsman, R. M. Sharp, of Casey county, will be required to pay same. Mat Reed failed to appear to answer to two charges against him, and his bond of $25 in each case, was declared forfeited. In the first case, Collins Moore and Charley Reed are on the bond and Charley Reed, alone on the bond in the second case.

The $100 bond of O. G. Speake was declared forfeited when he failed to appear to answer the breach of the peace case against him, and his bondsman, B. D. Holtzclaw, will have to settle.

Gardner Walls failed to answer when the case for disturbing religious worship was called against him, and his bond of $50 with Zora Smith and C. C. Smith as sureties, was declared forfeited.

The $50 bond of Mack Walls, with W. F. Walls, surety, was declared forfeited also when he failed to appear.

Adam Trice, colored, was given a sentence of 30 days in jail on a petit larceny conviction. James Singleton, of the East End, was given a fine of $60 and 10 days in jail on a whisky selling charge.

Raymond Steele, colored, was given 30 days in jail at hard labor on a booze charge.

Roscoe Blakemore, a 17-year-old negro of Crab Orchard was sentenced to serve from two to three and a half years in the Reform school for forgery.

Two cases against R. E. Thompson of Crab Orchard, on charges of selling liquor illegally were tried, one resulting in a hung jury and the other an acquittal for Mr. Thompson.

A charge of selling whisky illegally against Charley Reed, of Milledgeville, was tried in the absence of the defendant, whose attorney, George D. Florence said that he was ill. The jury found him guilty and fined him $100 and gave him 40 days in jail. Attorney Florence entered a motion and grounds for a new trial, which Judge Hardin took under advisement, stating that if it could be proven at the next term of court that Reed was really ill, a new trial would be given him.

The murder trial of Joe Hocker, who shot Oscar Gardner, another negro to death, near Hubble, and the incest charge against Eberhardt Reynolds, a local negro, went over to the next term of court.

The grand jury made a careful inspection of the courthouse, the jail and all the public offices, and reported to the court that they found that Jailor George DeBorde has kept them in splendid shape.

Judge Hardin pronounced sentence upon Esthrage Alford, the young slayer of Oliver Smith, and other criminals convicted at this term of court, before adjournment, and he gave Alford something to think about for some time to come.

Sheriff J. G. Weatherford and Deputies W. S. Drye and Francis Weatherford, took to the Reformatory at Frankfort yesterday Esthrage Alford who was given from 15 to 21 years for killing Oliver Smith; Nevin Hill, who caught a two to three-year sentence for breaking into Bet Salter's house and W. P. Copenhaver sent up for two to five years for forging the name of Samuel Holtzclaw to a check. They also took with them Roscoe Blakemore, age 17, who received a sentence of two to three and a half years for forging the name of an East End man named Fletcher to a check. He was left at Greendale.

TASK A FRUITLESS ONE

To Find Candidate Against Helm, Says Danville Paper.

(From Danville Messenger)

After a faithful search for someone to announce as a candidate against Hon. Harvey Helm for the Democratic nomination for Congress, the small bunch of men who hold personal grievances against the Lincoln county man have found their task a fruitless one. Disappointed in this, they are now busily engaged in belittling Mr. Helm and doing all in their power to hurt his candidacy. About the most contemptible act in politics is that of throwing mud at the fellow who has won his spurs honestly and above board. That he is one of the most popular men in the district, his several wonderful races will attest, and that he is going to be the next nominee is a foregone conclusion.

The Messenger has championed Mr. Helm's cause since this paper was established six years ago. We have done this because it has been our earnest effort to support only men we know are qualified for the office sought; men whose Democracy cannot be questioned; men who are capable and fearless in performance of duty, and whose personal character is absolutely above reproach. In Mr. Helm the Democrats have such a man.

The Congressional Record will show that Mr. Helm has been constantly at his post of duty and always voted and worked for every question he believed to be right and proper. He has done all any man can do in the interest of his constituents, many of whom have been beneficiaries in matters of valuable consideration. It was Mr. Helm who secured the passage through the House of the many old war claims recently paid to lodges and churches in this section—matters McCreary and many other able men were unable to get through.

Right now, when Europe is engaged in the worst war in the history of the world, and out of which we have kept by the able guidance of President Wilson and his advisers, Mr. Helm has been the staunch supporter of the President. Only this week, when a number of Democratic congressmen flew the coop and brought about conditions which threatened to plunge the country into war, Mr. Helm stood squarely with the President. It was such men as Mr. Helm who have brought about what now appears to be the complete avoidance of war and saved the country from possible destruction. Will the Democrats of this district vote against a man like that? Well, let us give you the tip—NEVER!

HALL'S GAP

We are having some bad weather, in this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Perkins, of Roland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Daugherty, Sunday.

Miss Bessie Adams and Mr. Theo. Cavin, of Crab Orchard were the guests of Miss Anna Hale, Sunday.

Mrs. S. R. Stauker and little sons, Leo and Freddie are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, of Madison.

Mrs. Thomas Eads, of Maywood was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Carter, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse Daugherty, and little son, of Danville were the guests of Mrs. Charlie Daugherty, Sunday.

Mrs. Dellie Hale is on the sick list. Mr. J. T. Debow, of Stanford is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Stauker are going to move to Stanford. We regret to give them up, they were such good neighbors.

Little James Sutherland Carter is numbered with the sick.

Mr. Charlie Daugherty continues quite ill his many friends are sorry to know.

Proper Treatment for Biliousness. For a long time Miss Lula Skelton, Churchville, N. Y., was bilious and had sick headache, and dizzy spells. Chamberlain's Tablets were the only thing that gave her permanent relief. Obtainable everywhere.

BEAUTIFUL QUEEN OF THE CARNIVAL

MISS MARGARET HARDING

Her many friends in this section will be glad to learn of the well merited honor which has been conferred upon Miss Margaret Harding, the attractive daughter of Col. and Mrs. Robert Harding, of Danville, she having been elected Queen of the annual Carnival held by the students of Central University. For the past thirteen years it has been the custom for the "C" men of the university to designate some girl as the Queen of the Carnival festivities. This recognition has long been esteemed the greatest honor within the bestowal of the "C" men. Miss Harding has always been a universal favorite with the students of Kentucky College for Women and Centre College, as well as with her host of admiring friends in Danville. Miss Harding is one of Kentucky's most charming and attractive young ladies, and the many friends of Centre feel that the boys could not have made a more suitable and pleasing choice. The committee in charge of this year's carnival are making plans to stage the biggest carnival ever held at Centre.

HIGHLAND GIRL ELOPES

And Weds Jesse Mason, of Danville—A Romantic Wedding.

Highland, March 6.

Her many friends will not be surprised to hear that Miss Myrtle Johnson has finally escaped the vigilant eyes of her parents and eloped. She had recently joined her step-father Mr. T. D. Williams, in Cincinnati, where he was employed. They were stopping with relatives. Last Wednesday eve when Mr. Williams returned from his work, Miss Myrtle was gone but had left word that she had gone to Bellevue to visit an aunt. Upon going there he found she had not been there, but it wasn't hard for him to guess what had become of her, for she and Mr. Jesse Mason, of Danville, had been expected to run off and get married for some time. While their friends have not yet heard where they were married, they are known to be at his home at Danville. Miss Myrtle has many friends here who extend their best wishes for a happy future for this couple. She is the oldest child of Mrs. T. D. Williams and is about 17 years old. Her father, Mr. Oliver Johnson, was killed on the railroad several years ago. She is a talented musician and she will certainly be missed as organist at the Methodist church here.

Mr. T. D. Williams came home last week to take his family back to Cincinnati where they will make their future home. Mrs. Haffinger, of Cincinnati, has been here to attend court and visit Mrs. Dugan.

Mrs. Mary Young and daughter continue very sick.

Mr. Miranda, who has been having trouble with his ear for sometime, was operated on by Drs. Thompson and O'Bannon last Thursday. He is at the home of Mr. Dugan.

Mrs. C. M. Young, who has been bedfast for ten weeks, is worse at this writing.

Mrs. Jeff Hale has been quite sick for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young are about the only sick ones who are improving.

The Detroit fever continues to rage among the Highland folks. The last victims are Messrs. Edgar Dugan, Clarence Hatfield and Will Gerkey, who left for that place a few days ago.

Miss Effie Young, who came home to be at the bedside of her mother, has returned to her work in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dugan entertained their friends with a good singing last week.

Miss Fannie Young closed her school at Duncan two weeks ago and is at home for awhile.

Hollis Young has gone to work for Elza Goodpaster near Hubble.

NEW SALEM

There have been several cases of grip in this community.

Miss Kate Martin, of this place, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Vada Minley at McKinney.

Mr. Theodore Austin has gone to Indianapolis for a few months' stay.

Mr. Fred McGuffey called on Miss Cordie Linthicum Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Raymond Wall from Indianapolis, spent a few days with his parents at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Estes, of near Hustonville, visited their parents here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. P. Estes has sold his farm to Dr. Creech.

Miss Maud Sims, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. M. T. Reynolds, at Stanford, has returned to her home.

There must be something awful attractive at Lanthamtown, as Mr. Clarence Sims has been going down there so often.

MURPHY—YOCUM

Walter Yocum, aged 21, obtained license Monday to marry Miss Sadie Murphy, "sweet 16," at Ellis Yocum's on Green river Wednesday. The will be bride is a daughter of Mrs. Martha Murphy.

Ugh! Acid Stomach, Sourness, Heartburn, Gas or Indigestion

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Mose remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

WEST END YOUTH BEATEN TO DEATH

When He Lost Balance in a Cart, His Head Falling Between the Spokes of One Wheel.

Emmett Gifford, a young man of the West End, met a horrible death Saturday afternoon, when he lost his balance while riding in a cart, his head falling into a wheel, and he was literally beaten to death by the revolutions of the wheel. A physician who went to the scene said that he had undoubtedly been drinking, causing him to topple over. The gruesome discovery of the tragedy was made by Robert Whittis, who lives on Long Branch, off the Liberty pike south of Hustonville. When found young Gifford's head was entangled in the spokes of one wheel and his feet in another, his body lying across the shafts. He was about 20 years of age.

HUSTONVILLE.

J. A. Johnson sold to Allen Bros., six head of 150-pound hogs at 6 1/2 c.

James Cloyd, off the Fork, was here the latter part of last week on business.

Officers of the Christian church met last Thursday evening at the National Bank to transact some important business.

W. D. Hocker sold his pony and cart and harness last week to Mr. Good of Campbellsville.

Mrs. E. R. Pike of Danville, was the guest of friends last week.

Geo. Tucker arrived home Friday from Casey county, with lots of hogs and a few head of cattle.

T. L. Carpenter is back from New-castle, Ind., much pleased with his trip, and stated that the machinery for the clock factory was being prepared for shipment.

Mr. A. A. Colyer, late of Decatur, Ill., but now of Pulaski, who lost his home, the old Tucker property, on the night of February 22, had a polio with Mr. W. J. Campbell, which had been taken out January 27. On March 2, the claim, amounting to $500 was paid Mr. Colyer, in full. Pretty quick action.

FOR quick adjustment on your fire insurance policy, see W. J. Campbell, the insurance man of the West End.

Julian McKinney and wife spent Sunday on the Fork with Mr. and Mrs. James Cloyd.

Quite a number here waiting for J. W. Houchin and family to arrive at Elkhart Springs, so they go there and partake of the good waters of that noted health resort.

Uriah Dunn attended county court at Columbia Monday.

Will Riffe and wife, and little son, motored to Stanford last Friday to see the first installment of the "Iron Claw," at the opera house. He pronounced it the best picture he ever saw.

Mrs. E. McCormack and daughter visited Mrs. James Woods, at Stanford Friday and Saturday.

B. Wright and son, of Danville, were guests Saturday of Squire J. K. Helm, out on the Middleburg pike.

News has been received here that Mrs. Bloomfield, formerly of this place, but now of Illinois, is just recovering from a severe case of small-pox.

Marion Lipps of Danville, was the guest of relatives Saturday.

Squire Gann arrived home from Louisville Friday, greatly enthused over the sale of a car load of hogs he made in that city, and his company will try the Falls City market again.

Miss Helenwood Burton, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore Burton of East Main street, fell from a chair last week and struck her left arm against the grate, causing a very painful injury. She will soon be able to get out again.

E. C. Hopper, president of the clock factory, and one of the chief members of the Board of Trade here, is on a deal with Noah Snow, for the entire output of his lead mine which promises to be of great value in the future.

FOR RICHMOND VISITOR

The spacious country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hocker was the scene Friday evening of a merry party in honor of their charming niece and house guest, Miss May Phelps, of Richmond. It was a St. Patrick's Rook Party, with pipe and shamrock tallies. Mr. William Grimes won the most games and received a bundle of Irish jokes made up by Mr. James Woods. A beautiful and delicious salad course was served. It was 12 o'clock before the jolly crowd could cleave the hospitable home. Those present were Misses May Phelps, Elvieve Cobb, Elizabeth Carpenter, Marguerite McCormack, Josephine Carpenter, Esther Burch, Elizabeth Eldredge, Ruth Darnell, Marguerite Shanks, Frances Embry, Janie Hocker, Mary Katherine Hocker and Mrs. James Woods; Messrs. James McAfee, Richard Cobb, Hubert Carpenter, Thomas Bright, William Grimes, Jack Beazley, Bona McKechie, Jessie Hocker and James Woods.

A SPECIFIC AGAINST COLDS.

The nearest thing to a specific against colds is a sleeping porch or open bed room and a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get up. Even then you will occasionally take a cold, especially when colds are epidemic, and when you do you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a great help in enabling you to get rid of it. Try it. Obtainable everywhere.

KEEP YOUR BOWELS REGULAR.

As everyone knows, the bowels are the sewerage system of the body, and it is of the greatest importance that they move once each day. If your bowels become constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets just after supper and they will correct the disorder. Obtainable everywhere.

EDITOR ALVERSON SELLS OUT.

News comes that Editor J. M. Alverson, of the Anderson News, has sold that paper to Prof. Bell, a well-known educator, of Lawrenceburg, and possession will be given April 1st. Editor Alverson, who has one of the best equipped offices in the State, cities, of course, excepted, is said to have gotten a long price. He is already casting about for another printing plant and a grape-vine wire says he was in Danville the other day taking a look at the Messenger. Mr. Alverson has made a good thing out of the Anderson News and is a hustler from away back. He is now Clerk of the Senate, but finds time to get out a good, newsy paper on time each week.

COLORED RADS VERY SORE

The Colored Republican State League, of which George W. Gentry, of this city, is president, has issued a call for a mass meeting in Lexington Thursday, March 9th, to take steps with reference to holding another republican convention at which the colored republicans shall be given full representation to the national convention at Chicago. Gentry has returned home and is very bitter against certain of the white republican leaders who, he says "threw him down" at the state convnion held in Louisville last week. He says that Ed Morrow did not treat him right and that he was "double crossed" all around by men for whom he has been working in politics for years. Negro republicans all over the state are said to be greatly incensed at the way they were treated and declare that they will not stand for the cold deal that was handed them.

SUDDEN PARALYTIC STROKE.

R. C. Engleman, known familiarly to his many friends as "Bub," is quite ill at his rooms, as a result of a paralytic stroke he sustained early Monday morning. The left side is said to be seriously affected, though he has shown much improvement this morning, his friends are glad to learn. The stroke came very suddenly, as Mr. Engleman had apparently been in good health, and was preparing to dress for the day when he lost the use of his limbs on the left side, and was compelled to call for assistance. Mr. Engleman's brother, John Engleman, a well known trotting horse driver and trainer of Lexington, came Monday night to be with him.

"MELON" FOR STOCKHOLDERS.

The Lincoln County National Bank is sending out notices to its stockholders this week of a payment of $25 per share out of its surplus fund. At a meeting of the directors it was decided to reduce the surplus by this amount in order to escape paying such large taxes, the surplus of this popular and unusually solid financial institution have grown enormously in the past few years.

NEW LOTS CHANGE HANDS

The handsome building lots sold in Embury Heights last week are already enhancing in value. R. M. Newland sold to L. B. Hilton, a lot and a half that he bought in the new addition last week, at an advance of $30 over the purchase price. This promises to be one of the most desirable residence sections of the city when buildings begin.

BEE LICK.

The farmers are now making ready to get down to work. There has been but very little plowing done this month on account of the bad weather.

Mr. David Proctor has been on the sick list, but is better at this writing. J. W. Stringer is able to be out again.

Mrs. M. G. Reynolds is better at this writing.

W. G. Todd is getting along nicely with his store room and says he will soon be ready to sell peanuts, popcorn and candy.

J. M. Reynolds is able to be up after a brief illness.

Most all of our boys have left for the State of Indiana, but the writer thinks that they will all drift back this way soon.

M. M. Taylor has completed a big stock barn for J. M. Noe at Spiro, and will erect one at the same place for John McKinney. A. T. Scott has been helping him.

Rev. C. C. Metcalfe has closed his protracted meeting at Union Ridge. Mr. Walker Scott says he will leave soon for Crab Orchard.

Germany now holds some 1,500,000 prisoners. There are many others in Austria, says the Overseas Agency, in giving out a list of prisoners and booty taken since the start of the war. Among other items are 19700 cannon, 700 military carriages and 3,000 machine guns.

KEEP YOUR BOWELS REGULAR.

As everyone knows, the bowels are the sewerage system of the body, and it is of the greatest importance that they move once each day. If your bowels become constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets just after supper and they will correct the disorder. Obtainable everywhere.

ANOTHER OLD CONFED IS GONE

M. Speed Peyton Passes Away As Result of Paralytic Stroke Sustained Two Years Ago.

Another old Confederate soldier has answered his last roll call; another of the grand old heroes that wore the grey has, like the immortal Jackson, crossed the river and is resting under the shade of the trees.

Mathias Speed Peyton died at the home of Mrs. Francis, at Rowland, where he had lived for the past two years, at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon of paralysis. Nearly two years ago he suffered a stroke of that fearful disease and since had been helpless. He was aware that the end was near, and having made peace with his God, was not afraid to die. A few years ago he joined the Stanford Christian church and he had since been a consistent member. Mr. Peyton, who was 74 years old, was the son of Speed Peyton, and was born at Peyton's Well. He was one of ten children, all but two—Mrs. Julia Preston, of Junction City, and Mrs. Greenberry Adams, of McKinney, Tex., having joined the silent majority.

Mr. Peyton joined the Confederate forces early in the Civil War and was a gallant soldier. He was a member of Capt. Bob Logan's company and was on the famous raid thru Ohio. He was captured at Buffington, that State, and kept a prisoner for a long time. Returning from the war, he gave his attention to farming, at which he was only reasonably successful. For years he served as constable of Lincoln county and made a most excellent official.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George P. Bright, T. D. Newland, James P. Bailey, W. S. Drye, Robert L. Porter, P. W. Carter.

He was an exceedingly kind-hearted man and none knew him but to admire and respect him. The greater portion of his last years were spent out on Dix river, where "Cap" Peyton, as his friends knew him, was a general favorite.

The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon, after prayer and brief remarks at the grave by Dr. D. M. Walker. The following close friends acted as pallbearers: Messrs. George